CONCORDIA-LONDON LIFE CENTENNIAL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

On January 6th and 7th of the new year, the Concordia University Stingers will host the 17th Annual Concordia-London Life Centennial Basketball Tournament. Teams from Quebec, Ontario and the U.S.A. will make the two-day event the hi-lite of the provincial basketball season.

On opening night (Thursday, January 6th) the Stingers will face the Queen's Golden Gaels in a 9 p.m. start. Cross-town rival McGill Redmen will go against U.S. entry Keene State Owls in the other semi-final at 7 p.m.. The consolation game will be played the following night at 5 p.m. followed by the championship at 7 p.m..

Last year the St. Mary's Huskies took top honours. The Tournament has been won eight times by teams from south of the border, while the Stingers have won twice in 1975 and 1979. Concordia, Plattsburgh State, St. Mary's, York and Acadia have each won the tournament twice.
